

By The Light In Your Eyes

Tekst og musik Ole Grønne/Jan Kaspersen

A rainy day in Aarhus in the nick of time
I looked into my pocket and found a lonely dime
And the day I flipped that coin into the wishing well was the day you came along and helped me break my spell

By the light in your eyes
By the light in your heart
By the fifty ways you show me
That we will never part
By the touch of your lips
By the touch of your hand
By the night we spent together
Making love in the sand

You always say what ´s right and I ´m always doing wrong
We drown in our own tears and shout as we go along
But the thing that makes me happy what makes me feel so well
I know how much you love me and I know ´cause I can tell

By the light in your eyes
By the light in your heart
By the fifty ways you show me
That we will never part
By the touch of your lips
By the touch of your hand
By the night we spent together
Making love in the sand

Since the day that we met
I've been terrified
By the thought of losing you
All I want is to spend
Ev`ry breath I have with you
I guess you know it's true

By the light...
