

Every time you cry

(Duet with Andrew Strong)

Tekst og musik Gregg Sutton/Shelley Peiken

Never before have I seen you look so blue
I can't find the cure and nothin' comforts you
The light at the end of the tunnel
Doesn't shine at the end of the day

Every time you cry - save up all your tears
I will be your rainbow when they disappear
Wash away the pain - till you smile again
I will be the laughter in your eyes
Every time you cry - every time you cry

Time has a way of woundin' what has healed
What can I say - I know just how you feel
Your soul is dark and troubled
Like a river runnin' wild

Every time you cry - save up all your tears
I will be your rainbow when they disappear
Wash away the pain - till you smile again
I will be the one who dries your eyes
Every time you cry

Well you know that's what I'm here for
I will give you when you need more
There will be no hesitation I will reap no reward

Every time you cry
