

Here I Am

Tekst Jette Torp og Musik Jan Glæsel

Here I am -
Like a tree in new leaf - I am
All of a sudden I see
Something's changed in me - imperceptibly
And I don't know this feeling
Don't recognize the peace I have in me

Here I am
Like a bird on its wing - I am
Why it felt so uneasy to be I will never know - and it hurts me so
But I will keep this feeling
This new discovered feeling
That tenderly caresses my soul

It's true - it will always be true
And constantly cravin' that I have faith
In what is me - eternally
Otherwise it's in vain
The distance is short between joy and pain
It somehow feels the same

Here I am
Like a river that floods - I am
In the depth of my soul there's a glow
How it makes me long - this feeling coming, oh so strong
And how I love this feeling
This warm and tender feeling
That wraps me up and makes me feel alive

I never knew the meaning of flying a balloon
Floating among the clouds of happiness and joy
Now I know all that it takes to reach the sorrow
Finding this undisturbed peace I have in me

It's true - it will always be true
And constantly cravin' that I have faith
In what is me - eternally
Otherwise it's in vain
The distance is short between joy and pain
But I will keep this feeling
This warm and tender feeling
That wraps me up and shows me who - I am
