

Life is a Journey

Tekst og musik Ole Grønne/Jan Kaspersen

Now our life appears behind all that was new A roadmap that's drawn in scars and wishes came true
And mind every step my friend
And mind every night we spend
Beginning to comprehend
Life is a journey of shooting stars

Good moments in life can reflect a tear Like snowflakes in fire
we will disappear
Every day writes a sign into our skin Secret patterns of love within

Each time your sun goes down a moon rises in my chest Venus shines more than Mars deep down in Southwest And mind every route that ends
And mind every river bend
Beginning to comprehend
Life is a journey of shooting stars

Good moments...

Bridges of rain and colours anywhere we go
And wrinkle ladders
To climb as our temples grow
We must travel so far We've got to seek and find a story of you and me in the light of shooting stars

Good moments...

Love within

Love within

Love within

Love within

It' s like snowflakes in fire

Like snowflakes in fire
