

Little Did I Know

Tekst og musik Ole Grønne/Jan Kaspersen

Little did I know that leaving you
Was the hardest thing to do
Little did I know your eyes so blue Tender as the morning dew

Little did I know my torch for you Burned a hole into my heart
Little did I know that sunny days
Ended as we went apart

But a rain will fall
when we meet again
washing all our troubles gently
Like a thousand tears falling from a god tenderly

Little did I know that in my dreams
You will always play a part
Little did I know that Cupid's blind
And my heart attracts his darts

But a rain will fall...

Come and make my darkness bright
Come let's swim in full moon light
Let's embark the silver tide
To night

But a rain will fall...
