

Never give in

Tekst og musik Ole Grønne/Jan Kaspersen

Sometimes in the middle of the night
Under a sky without a single light
It might be my personal cloud
I got my problems, I got my doubt

My father taught me never to give in
You got to fight if you want to win

Don't take no for an answer
Sunshine for granted
Love as a flame that tears can put out
Don't see changes as trouble
Sandcorn as rubble
Money as something you can't live without

Oh no, don't look back
Don't mind the roads that had a crack
Sun will rise, and bells will chime
I know that we've still got the time

My father taught me never to give in
You got to fight if you want to win

Don't take no for...

I teach my children never to give in
Might take a fight if you want to win

Don't take no for...
