

Silence come silently

Tekst og musik JetteTorp/Jan Kaspersen

Fresh is the morning
This new day is dawning - and I
Shower in silence
And bless this alliance between
Calmness and children sleeping
Fairytale rise from deep in me
I'm pinching my arm - can this be true

Beyond all clear thinking
While floating I sink into life
And I see the dimensions
The hopes and intentions I got
Travelling through my moods
Easiness substitutes the weight
And makes me believe dreams can come true

Silence come silently
Take me unto your wings
Open my eyes
So I see all the love life brings

Silence come silently
Whisper into my ear
Words of creation
My seeking heart longs to hear

Too much of nothing's like
Pulling a coffin within life
And too many sorrows
Might hide the tomorrows - but I
I got this room of silence
Clearing my mind and I dance out
Into a world that somehow seems new

Silence come silently..

Fresh is the morning
A new day is dawning and I
Fly
