

Talk to me while I'm listening

Tekst og musik Nanci Griffith

I should have known that you were gone
When we reached the dawn
You told me in the dark while I was sleeping
Then you slept through the sunrise
As it washed upon your face
And all that I had heard were our hearts beating

Talk to me while I'm listening now
While this love has a voice that we both can hear
Before you let it go, the greatest love I've ever known
Won't you please talk to me while I'm listening

I can not find a place to put this love away
Or lose the thought of sunlight on your face
I thought I heard your voice say I love you today
But it was only the sound of my heart breaking

Talk to me while I'm listening now...

How i wish that I could take us back, so desperately
And I would stay awake and you would talk to me
Yet for every drop of rain I hear there's bound to fall another tear
Upon this page of song of my heart aching

Talk to me while I'm listening now...
